IT'S ALMOST A MEMORU

THEY ARE THE STUDENTS WHO HAVE BEEN CHOSEN TO REPRESENT THE SCHOOL AT THE REGIONAL MEETING. THEY WILL BE TRAVELING TO THE MEETING IN A BUS. THE STUDENTS WILL BE ACCOMPANIED BY A TEACHER AND A PARENT. THE MEETING WILL BE HELD IN A LARGE HALL IN THE CITY. THE STUDENTS WILL BE THERE FOR TWO DAYS. THEY WILL BE PARTICIPATING IN VARIOUS ACTIVITIES AND MEETINGS. THE MEETING IS A VERY IMPORTANT ONE FOR THE SCHOOL. IT IS A CHANCE FOR THE STUDENTS TO SHOW OFF THEIR SCHOOLS AND TO MEET OTHER STUDENTS FROM OTHER SCHOOLS. THE MEETING IS ALSO A CHANCE FOR THE STUDENTS TO LEARN ABOUT OTHER SCHOOLS AND TO GET TO KNOW EACH OTHER. THE MEETING IS A VERY IMPORTANT ONE FOR THE SCHOOL. IT IS A CHANCE FOR THE STUDENTS TO SHOW OFF THEIR SCHOOLS AND TO MEET OTHER STUDENTS FROM OTHER SCHOOLS. THE MEETING IS ALSO A CHANCE FOR THE STUDENTS TO LEARN ABOUT OTHER SCHOOLS AND TO GET TO KNOW EACH OTHER.

Memorable moment: Meteor Dedicatee

This year's Meteor Dedicatee is Lucille L. Wilcox. She has been at the high school since 1971 as secretary in the counseling office.

She was born in April, 1945 in Kansas City, Missouri.

She graduated from Tuba City High School, and then attended NAU for 2 years where she met her husband Ted, principal of Jefferson Elementary School. They were married on June 5, 1965.

They have two children: daughter Toni Leigh who is a senior at NAU, and son Timothy Dean, a junior at Stanford. They also have a 5 year old granddaughter named Amanda Renae.

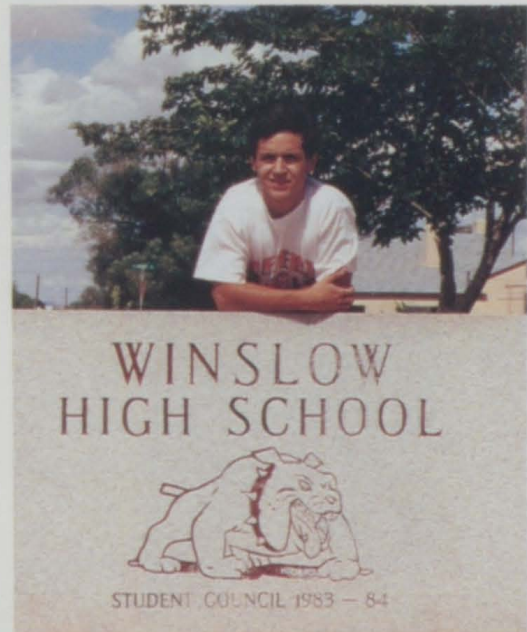

All the students know who she is and appreciate what she does for them.

Embarrassing Moments.....

When I fell on the ice in front of a bunch of junior high students.

Attending the wrong class for a week.

When I fell asleep sometimes during 3rd hour and woke up during 4th hour.

The day I called Mr. Griffith 'Dad'.

When I went on the trip with Upward Bound to the ocean and a giant wave knocked me down.

I broke the door in 3rd hour.

Being depantsed.

Missing a tackle against RV my Frosh year.

When I was in 7th grade my skirt came un-buttoned when I was walking down the hall.

I accidentally went into the women's restroom.

When we were playing Sinagua and I didn't realize I had the wrong jersey on until I got a technical for it.

When I fell down the bleachers in front of my boyfriend and family.

When I sneezed and my boogers came out.

At a baseball game in Snowflake, I threw a pitch that hit the top of the backstop.

When my skirt got stuck in my bloomers and I showed my backside to a packed Holbrook gym.

Went bowling and fell on my butt.

When I fell out of my desk. Learning to drive my car.

Sitting on the bench for 2 years in baseball.

When I was thrown in jail on graduation.

Mr. WHS pageant.

When I hit 3 cows!

When Mr. Reynolds couldn't say my mom's name at the Homecoming assembly.

Running my dad's truck through my neighbor's fence.

When I fell asleep in class and everyone said I was snoring.

When Shelly, Traci and I had to push my truck by the Pizza Hut and the golf team.

When I was learning to slide face first in Softball.

I leaned back in my chair, and then I lost my balance and landed smack on the floor.

Getting dissed by a sophomore.

When I slipped fell on the ice.

When I fell down the stairs.

As long as I live, I'll never forget...

Adventurous dates with Tom. S.S. at Casa Grande '91 (and D.N.'s letter, Jan. 06, 1992-ha!)

Crackers.

The great teachers.

Running a cop off the road in Show Low.

Trish, and exaggerated stories about me and the ocean.

Joe.

When my brother came home.

Sixth hour discussions in Mr. Cue's class.

Getting married.

My freshman year.

When David's grandparents left for two weeks.

When someone told me off in the library.

Good times, great friends-oh and when N.R.B. fell in that big puddle of mud!

The varsity girls basketball team, and all that fun we had!

Stephanie!

When I had freshman P.E., we were swimming and Alice Sedillo and Aileen Velez threw me in the deep end and I didn't know how to swim.

To be easy going.

I say ... that is ... Shhh!

New Year's Eve ('89/'90).

ASU 37 U of A 14

The "STARS" with Precious...

Singing, "It's So Hard to Say 'Good-bye to Yesterday'" with the the seven of us.

Making a few calls while flying around Dead Man's Curve.

My dorm aides!!

Our little trip tp Arby's when Ronnie's brake fluid ran out.

My mean remarks to Debra Stacey, I was KIDDING!

When I fell down the stairs on front of some cute guys

The day I fell at work.

How tall I was.

My friends.

How great my friends have been to me during my high school years.

When Chantel fell out of Keturah's car.

Mr. Howell's composition English class and the class of '92!

Doing breakfast.

The best four weeks of my life-Sept. 18-Oct. 9 of my senior year!

Class of 1992!!

12-16-91: Jana and I went to Flagstaff.

The time SJ and I tripped the stairs in front of a bunch of guys.

When Mr. Reynolds sat on a thumb tack in Mrs. Greenwoods's class.

The time Tara and I wrecked her truck.

When my brakes went out on my way to Taco Bell with a bunch of girls.

All my friends & cutting my brother's hair with pink scissors.

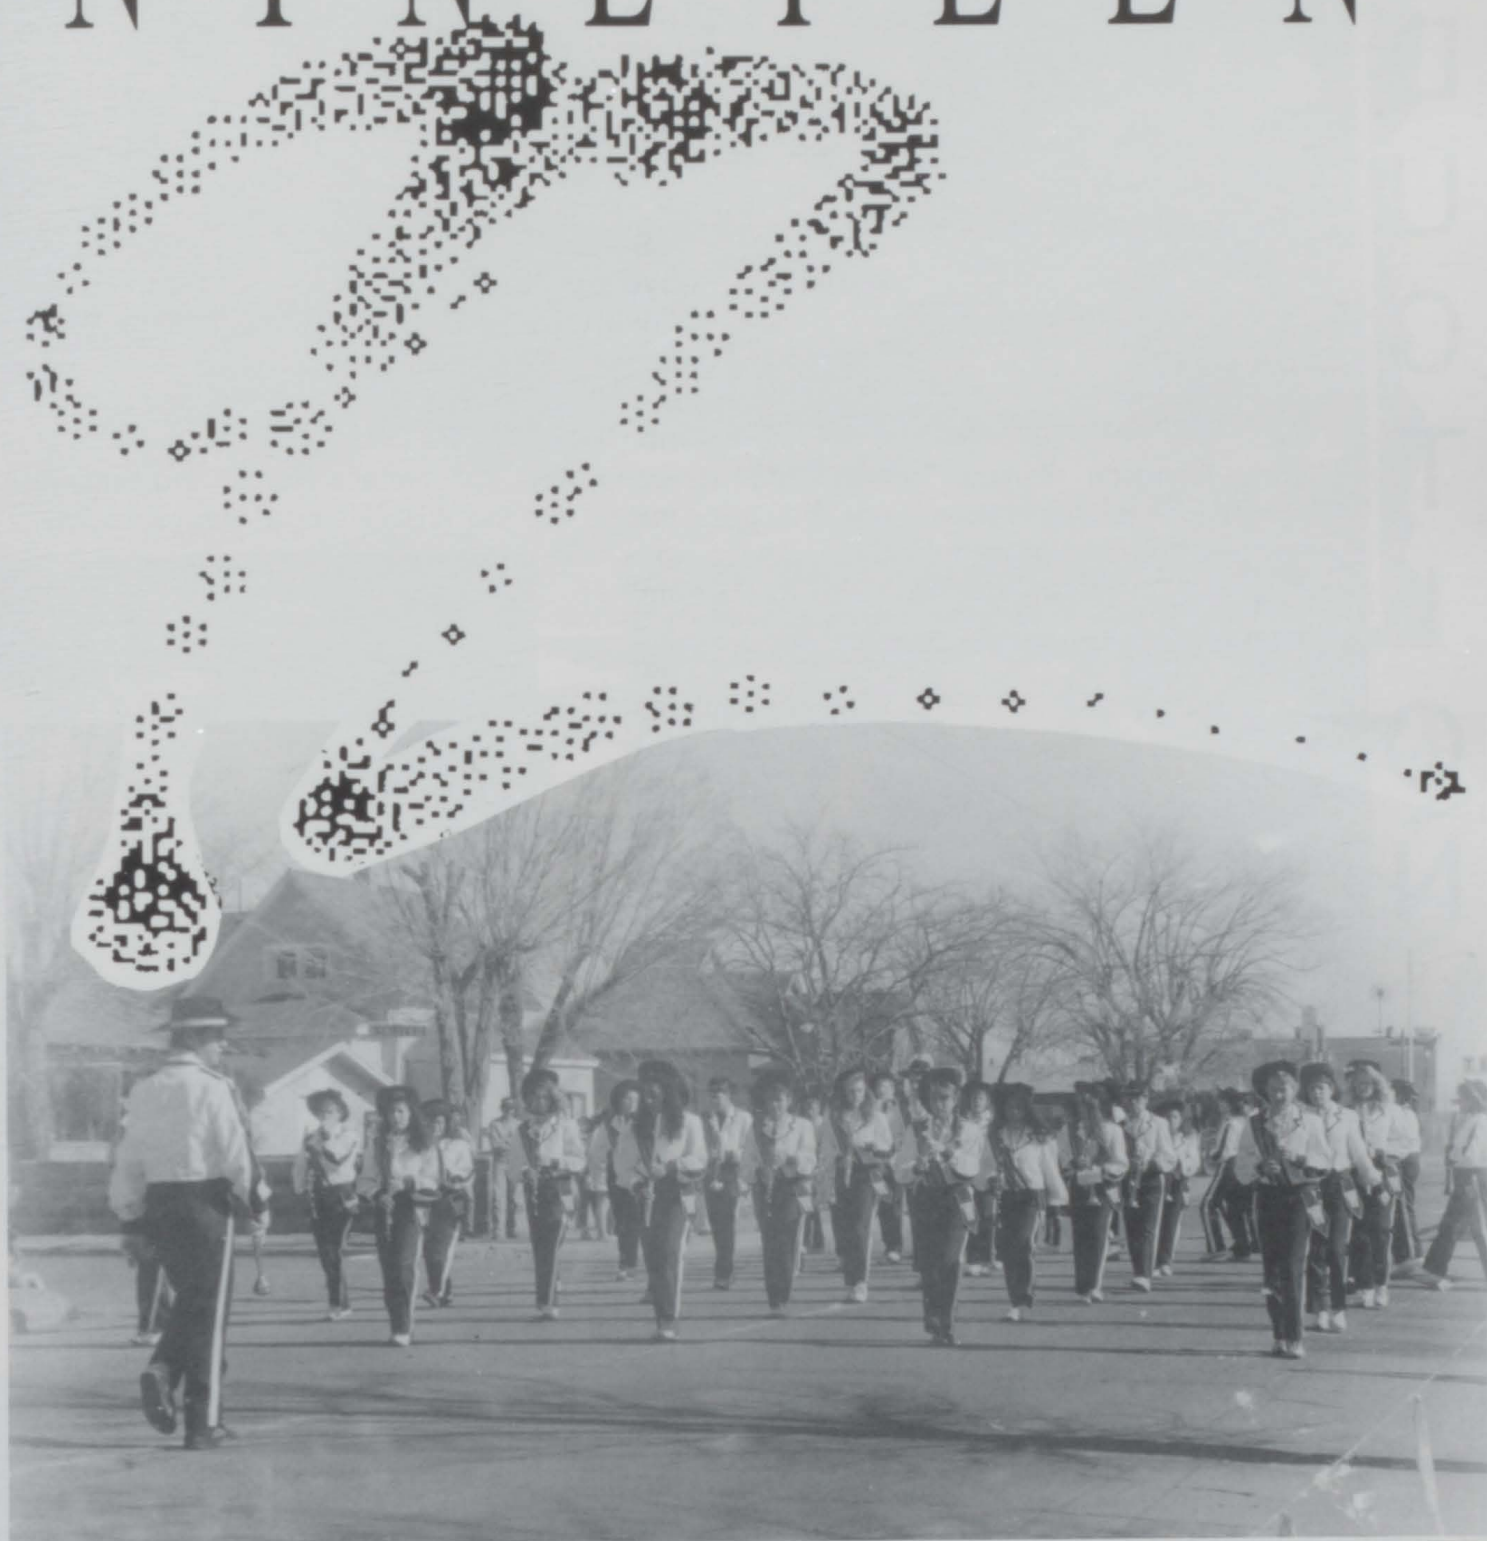

All my homies and my "Special guy, J.C."!

Roland Hancock, Marjorie Tassone, Matt DeElana, Kelli Bull, Natalie Hardy, and Berlinda Gomez look thrilled to be alive as they get inducted into the WHS National Honor Society.

The 1991-92 Honor Society Induction ceremony was a memorable experience for sixteen new members. The ceremony included an introduction by Billy Mendoza, a speech by Mardi Marquez about the Honor Society emblem, and a skit put on by the current Honor Society members. The skit was a trial of the Verla Oare Chapter. Service, Scholarship, Leadership, and Character were witnesses saying whether or not the defendants (inductees) were eligible to be in Honor Society. The new members were: Kelli Bull, Matt DeElana, Berlinda Gomez, Natalie Hardy, Kathy Bellman, Courtney Chessier, Nathan Hancock, Roland Hancock, Jennifer Ianni, Monty Pfulb, Patricia Ramirez, Christine Sanchez, Chris Smith, Daniel Tafoya, Marjorie Tassone, Melissa Wilson, Teddi Beal, Kelly Hahn, and Aletha Indian.

The Lady Bulldogs opened their season with a bang! They captured the Kalil High Country Klassic along with the Winslow Winter Classic titles before Christmas break.

The team never slowed down and soared to new heights by going undefeated in conference play. With a win over St. Johns, coach Don Petranovich collected his career 300th victory.

The Lady Bulldogs continued to shine as they captured the regional and regional tournament championships. Senior Keturah Mattox was named the 3A East Player of the Year.

Keturah Mattox goes for the slam as Mary Stock looks on dumbfounded.

After victories over Miami, Tuba City, and Monument Valley in the state playoffs, the Lady Bulldogs brought home the state runner-up trophy and a 30-1 record after a tough battle against Window Rock in front of 11,000 fans in the NAU Skydome. Yet, when all the screaming and yelling were over, they found they weren't just a team, they were a family.

With the sound of heavy breathing and pounding feet, the Winslow track squads braved stiff winds, cold weather, and snow in order to get ready for the season's top meets. After competing at the Peaks Invitational and the Bradshaw Mountain Invitational to begin the year, the teams traveled to Round Valley and appeared on ESPN.

Several athletes battled for conference and state medals while the team faced another tough 3A East Divisional Track Meet.

Even though it may have been touch and go at times, you made it! Your high school days are behind you now — a collection of  fine memories of people, places & fun.
 But don't despair. Take a look at what lies ahead.

New challenges  Exciting adventures. And more fun!
 So, keep your chin up. Your nose to the grindstone. And go for the gusto!

Life is what  you make it,  so make it the best.
 And remember, all your friends at Valley Bank  wish you all good things  in your future. Happy Graduation!

Well, you made it! I can't believe it's been 17 years. It went too fast.

Words can't express how proud we are of you and how much we love you. Stay as sweet and as good as you've always been.

You have what it takes to make your dreams come true.

Love,
Mom and Dad

P.S. Don't feel too bad about leaving poor old Mom with a house full of men!

TO MY DAUGHTER EMA JEAN ESPINOSA

I'm writing this message to you to express all my appreciation and the way I feel about you. I truly am very proud to have a daughter like you.

As for the past 12 years, you have made me very proud of you and have honored me as a mother would love to be honored by her children. You have never caused me a heartache, and for this I love you.

I might not show you how much I love you everyday, but I truly love you from the bottom of my heart.

I hope you succeed in what you want in life and may God bless you in the future.

Your mother
Yolanda Espinosa
and your grandmother
Ema R. Espinosa

MICHAEL MONROE

As you may already know, we are very proud of you. We hope that you will always strive for the best in achieving your dreams and goals because you deserve only the best in life. Sometimes things may get a bit complicated, but never give up. If you put your mind to it, you can accomplish anything your heart desires. Remember one thing; we will always be there for you. Congratulations!

CONGRATULATIONS

1992

High school has come and gone so fast,
But through it all we have memories sure to last.
Football games, floats, and
Friday night dances,
New friends, Prom, new dreams, and classes,
An occasional party and
crazy clownish ways,

All fit in with the role the teenager plays.

Yes, high school life can be great fun,

As long as something is learned or done.

Through it all we have survived and lived,

And now it's time to give what we have to give.

And give the world all your dreams and stories.

But don't forget what you have left behind,

As you grow old, memories fill your mind.

*One last thought and, WHS,
a final farewell,*

So enter into the world with hopes and glories,

*So down that long path
we follow,*

Because our future is just one more tomorrow.

Our dreams and goals are waiting to be achieved,

Waiting at our fingertips there to fulfill the need.
